27 th am	On Monday a settler is reported missing, and West Bank militants claim that they hold him. On Wednesday they threaten to kill him. Israeli forces build up over a 2-day period, as they hope that pressure from Abbas and from Egypt might result in the release of Shalit. Forces enter Gaza in the south, setting up forward bases near the airport outside Rafah, during the early morning hours of Wednesday.		11am: Egypt increases border police force Israel threatens to assassinate exiled Hamas leaders

28 th am	Prior to the movement of troops, the main electricity power plant for the south was put out of action with an air strike. An immediate consequence is the spoiling of food stored in refrigerators across Gaza, as well as the inability to pump or purify water. The estimate is that the power plant – built by Enron, began operation in 2002, and currently insured by a US government agency – will be out of operation about 6 months. As many as 20 locations were targeted Friday, June 30th.		1am: Israeli tanks, troops enter Gaza near Rafah 2am: PRC threaten to kill West Bank settler Israeli warplanes fly over Assad's palace in Latakia, Syria Warplanes set up sonic booms over Gaza
